2016-2017 Festival Royalty Agreement

Requirements & Expectations

1. Contestant must be an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe (may be required to show proof).
2. Contestant must not be a current title holder, nor shall they apply if they have held the title in any of these categories previously.
3. Contestants must be unmarried and have no children, dependents, nor be expecting dependents.
4. If crowned one of the Festival Royalty titles then the title holder must represent the Shoshone-Bannock Tribes and Festival whenever they are called upon to do so for school or community events. The events may include conferences, banquets, local community powwow or cultural events.
5. Contestants/title holder will remain drug, tobacco and alcohol free throughout the pageant and their reign.
6. Attention: It is very important that you as a title holder of a Festival royalty title or Attendant to maintain a high level of moral standard for yourself, now and in the future.
  - A. You will serve as positive role models and should refrain from any activities and behavior that may be deemed unfavorable to their title.
  - B. Any incidents where inappropriate photographs/videos depicting negative activities on any website such as but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, etc...will result in being reported to the Royalty Committee & Festival committee/Tribe.
  - C. Should it be found true that an incident/violation was committed the Royalty and/or Festival Committee may have the title holder relinquish her title.
7. All contestants and family members should show sportsmanship attitude during and after the competition, furthermore, contestants and family members will not fraternize with judges during the pageant. It is encouraged to have lots of fun, respect each other and be positive with everyone!
8. The Crown is the sole property of the Royalty/Festival Committee & Shoshone-Bannock Tribes. If it is lost or stolen the Festival Title holder and Parent/Guardian will be held responsible for the replacement of a new one and the cost to procure another crown.

I hereby affix my signature verifying that I have read and understand the agreement as set forth and will abide by it.
